Local Shriners, Officials Hold Family Party

Top Shrine officials of Southern California, headed by Illustrious Potentate William C. Froelich of Al Malakiah Temple, Los Angeles, joined with the families of members and friends of the South Bay Shrine Club at Abalone Cove, Portuguese Bend for fun, relaxation, dining and dancing, Saturday afternoon and evening, September 15th, beginning at 2 o'clock.

Potentate Froelich was accompanied by Past Potentate Stanton A. Bruner, Members of the Divan and the Temple Sextet.

According to Stuart Richards, Torrance, vice president of the South Bay Shrine Club which embraces Shriners in Torrance, Lomita, Gardena and South Bay Cities, this annual Family Beach Party attracts a capacity attendance.

Obituaries

ROSA MAY RATLIFF
Mrs. Rosa May Ratliff, age 79 of 1104 Arlington avenue, died at her home September 13th. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. J. England of the First Christian Church on September 16th at the Stone and Myers Funeral Home. The remains were shipped to Tekamah, Nebraska for interment. Survivors are: sons, Edward M. Ratliff of the above address; Benjamin F. Mrs. Ratliff was a member of the Townsend Club of Torrance for a number of years. Edward F. Ratliff accompanied his mother's remains to Tekamah, Nebraska.

More than 14,400,000 kroner has been raised for the first cancer hospital in Norway, which will be built soon at Oslo.

Q.—My Chrysanthemums grow tall but have weak stems and few flowers.
A.—Divide them in Spring; as soon as the new shoots are about 6 inches high, pinch out the top and continue to do this every 2 or 3 weeks until mid-July. This will make the plants bushy and stronger. Grow in full sun.

El Camino to Hold 'Miss E-Z Vision' Contest
Any miss who is easy on the eyes and plans to attend El Camino College this Fall, can apply for the "Miss E-Z Vision" queen contest being held at El Camino September 21. The winner of the contest is slated to reign at El Camino's three televised football games and has a chance to appear on two television programs.

Miss E-Z Vision will be the television hostess for the El Camino team during the game, being interviewed by Hoffman television during the half-time activities.

She will be chosen by a board of judges consisting of two college officials, three local Hoffman television dealers, and Jim Hardy, formerly with the Los Angeles Rams and the Chicago Cardinals and now Hoffman's director of sports.

Each junior college whose games are being televised by Hoffman will choose a Miss E-Z Vision for their own college. At the close of the football season, an over all queen will be chosen from these college "visions" and she will reign at some championship game such as the Little Rose Bowl.

Midweek varieties television show is hosting El Camino talent Tuesday, October 30, and Miss E-Z Vision will appear and be interviewed.

Q.—What vine can I plant that will make a fast growth in exposed, sunny location through the Summer?
A.—Clarke's Extra Early Heavenly Blue Morning Glory will make an astonishing rapid growth when the weather is really warm and the newer red Morning Glory "Darling" also likes a warm sunny exposure.

INTERIOR DECORATION
Knowing that beauty is an important criteria in the purchase of a new home, the planners of Woodley Square have procured the services of an interior decorator in planning the color schemes for the interior of each home. Other features of these homes are the steel reinforced foundations, the wood shingle roofs, rust-proof aluminum screens and spacious picture windows.

Ready to help those wishing to look at these homes will be the following salesmen from the Howard Percy office: Fred Hansen, Lois Litaker, Theresa Russell, Harry Peterson, and Percy. Builder of the development is Michael Grayson of Encino.
